

Waiting for your guest at departure instead of arrival? It's like expecting funds when you have to pay up.

Suddenly discovered that instead of receiving money you owe your broker?

Surprised by the transactions? Do keep a regular check of your running account. Make sure there are no surplus funds lying idle in your account. Deposit as much is required for a transaction. And remember to settle the account on a monthly basis by settlement of funds and securities.